HOSPICE CARE SERVICES

Hospice programs are designed to provide care to persons with any life-threatening illness. Most provide a care plan developed by the patient and attending physician.

Hospice programs provide a team approach to the patient's care. In a hospice program, a team of nursing staff, doctors, social workers, other health professionals, volunteers, chaplains, family, and friends all work together to bring comfort, care, and dignity to those on their final journey of life.

Hospice services can be covered by Medicare, Medicaid, private insurance, and private fees. Some programs will offer hospice services regardless of ability to pay.

Sound Generations Pathways & Assistance does not recommend, endorse or suggest which service providers you should use. We offer this list only as a resource to help you get started. For further assistance, call us at (206) 448-3110.

Hospice Compare is a website managed and paid for by the U.S. Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services. It enables you to locate hospice services in your area and compare them based on quality of care. <https://www.medicare.gov/hospicecompare/>
